

by the defunct associations and the fuller copies given, will render our enterprise a failure, unless Congress shall pay for postage as it once became a purchaser of such portions of the press as it might desire to make use of. I make no pretensions that I will be able to make up the balance of such bills that. The undrugged has devoted on the presentation of the bill, to the following effect: "Resolved, That Congress will subscribe for a copy daily of each Member, at the sub-ordinary price, as will be determined by the House of Representatives, for the publication of Congressional documents to their several divisions. This will enable the Secretary to bear the charge of the publication of the bills, and the bills of the House of Representatives, which, although the charges in the bill are not sufficient to make the system profitable."

JOSE C. ROSS having purchased the interest of P. M. in the above enterprise, and having secured the necessary material—becomes the sole proprietor thereof, and will now give his exclusive attention to the publication of the bills of the House of Representatives, and the bills of the Congress of the President, which, although the charges in the bill are not sufficient to make the system profitable.

THE GLOBE will be published daily during the season of Congress and weekly the remainder of the year. It will undergo distribution in the usual manner. THE WEEKLY GLOBE, a weekly supplement to THE GLOBE, and AN APPENDIX.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE will contain Agricultural and miscellaneous articles; and will occasionally give debates of such importance as command universal interest.

The price of the WEEKLY GLOBE is reduced to one dollar, with a view to obtain more general circulation. Subscribers who have hitherto paid $2 per annum, will be charged only $1 after the expiration of the first year.

THE GLOBE will be published on Sunday, and it has done so since the first of July, 1856.

The APPROX will embrace the revised speeches separately, and the Messages of the President of the United States, and the reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPROX will be published as long as the proceedings of Congress, will make a number. Subscribers may expect one number of each a week, except in the winter months, when the sessions of Congress are suspended. The number of numbers of each a week afterwards, until the end of the session. Each volume will probably comprise two bound royal quarto papers.

THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE and APPROX will be sent to subscribers soon after Congress adjourns.

The printing of a political party aspect will appear in the GLOBE, save that which will be found in the Congressional Reports. A paper assuming to be an impartial vehicle for all parties, is not in the character, if the editorial conduct can reflect a party bias.

REVOLUTION IN PERIODICAL LITERATURE.
HOLDEN'S
ILLUSTRATED DOLLAR MAGAZINE.
Since the death of the proprietor of this popular Magazine, the property has passed into the hands of the subscriber, who will continue to publish it at the Publication Office.

No. 109 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

THE NEW VOLUME,

To be commenced on the First of January, 1880, will comprise many important improvements, which, it is believed, will render the Magazine one of the best Periodicals published in the country, as it certainly is the cheapest. Among these improvements will be new and beautiful type, new colored paper, a higher order of illustrations than those heretofore given, and contributions from some of the ablest writers in America. It is the aim of this respecter to proliferate a Popular Magazine, adapted to the wants of all classes of reading people in the Republic, which shall be both instructive and amusing; and free alike from the grossness of which characterizes much of the other literature of the day, and from the vapidity of the so-called "Ladies Magazines." The illustrations will consist of Original Drawings engraved on wood by the best Artists;

PORTRAITS OF REMARKABLE PERSONS AND VIEWS OF REMARKABLE PLACES

illustrated by pen and pencil. A strict revision will be exercised that no improper article, or word shall ever be admitted, so that it may be safely taken by persons of the utmost refinement, and read at the fireside for the amusement or instruction of the family circle.

The Review department of the magazine will contain brief critical notices of all the new publications of the day, and will form a complete chronicle of current literature.

From the business and literary connexions already created, and such assistance that the country can afford

but with the new avenues daily opening for the circulation of works of merit; the constantly increasing population of the country, the cheapness of the Magazine, and the superiority of its literary and artistic attractions, to those of any other work now issued, the proprietor feels assured that in an enterprise which will be sure to benefit the public if it should not enrich himself.

The Magazine will be under the Editorial charge and supervision of

CHARLES F. BRIGGS,

The "PULPIT PORTRAITS," a series of Biographic Sketches, accompanied by well engraved Portraits of Eminent Divines of the American Church, which have formed a conspicuous feature of "HOLDEN," will be continued in the succeeding Volumes of the Magazine, and will render it of peculiar value to religious people of every denomination.

THE FIFTH VOLUME

will commence on the first or actually issued on the 15th of December. Each number will consist of 64 PAGES, AND NUMEROUS ENGRAVINGS.

The Terms are

THE NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD is published on Thursday of every week by THE AMERICAN ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY at its office, 142 Nassau street, New York.
As the object of the Society is the ABOLITION of AMERICAN CHattel SLAVERY, which is unchristian and cruel only, by virtue of a corrupt public sentiment, so the purpose of the Society's Organ, the STANDARD, is to establish great truth, by facts of experience, and appeals to reason and common sense, that Slavery is economically, politically, morally, and religiously, a gigantic error, and a sin of the deepest dye, and should, therefore, be immediately, totally and unconditionally, abandoned. It enforces the duty of secession from the body of a Church which palliates or defends such a system, and repudiates a Union whose common bond is the oppression of one sixth of the people.

It is the aim of those to whose management the cause is entrusted to make it, not only a faithful representation of the cause, but a faithful representation of the cause.

ent of the highest Anti-Slavery cause, and the progress of the cause, but also a complete history of the progress of the cause. The columns are always devoted to selections from other papers, both Northern and Southern, presenting, so far as is presented through the public press, the pro-slavery or Anti-Slavery complexion of the different sections of the Union.

It is designed also to be a good family newspaper, containing always a brief synopsis of the most important current intelligence. Its fourth page is exclusively literary character, and is carefully collated from the

THE STANDARD is edited by JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL, EDWARD QUINCY, and SIDNEY HOWARD GAY. Mr. Gay is the resident editor, and its chief management is entrusted to him. Each number of the paper will contain an article in the editorial columns from either Mr. Quincy or Mr. Lowell over their propensities.

RICHARD D. WEBB of this city, whose letters to the Standard have excited so much attention hitherto, for their bold and discriminating view of Irish affairs, and for their vigorous and independent treatment of the various subjects his price is $2 per annum, and the Executive Committee confidently and earnestly commend it to the patronage of the friends of the American Anti-Slavery Society, as well as to the opponents of American Slavery, as worthy, both for its object and its character, of their support.
